

Visiting Scholarship

The Palestinian Question in Historical Perspective

Deadline for applications: 15 August 2017

Utrecht University (The Netherlands), Department of History and Art History

The purpose of this scholarship is to stimulate interest in the history of the Palestinian question. We are offering the possibility for a three-month stay at Utrecht University's Department of History and Art History, from November 2017 until January 2018.

The visiting scholar is expected to contribute to a graduate course on the Palestinian question and to hold at least one public lecture (for the Utrecht Centre for International Studies, UCIS).

The Department takes care of housing, and travel expenses will be reimbursed. The scholar will receive a stipendium of 5000 Euro.

We are looking for an enthusiastic scholar with proven academic expertise on the Palestinian question or a related topic, preferably in possession of a PhD.

For further information and applications please contact Prof. Duco Hellema (chairman of the selection committee). E-mail: d.a.hellema@uu.nl.
